

Flight Commander

Job Description

The Flight Commander is responsible for leading the entire flight during class periods.

The Flight Commander will report directly to the Instructor in charge of the class.

Flight Commander

Job Description

1. The Flight Commander must be able to keep proper discipline, maintaining their uniform and keeping proper grooming always to lead by example. They must also be able to delegate different tasks throughout their flight without causing any problems and confusion.
2. The Flight Commander will take control of the class in the absence of an instructor.
3. The Flight Commander should be able to speak publicly without hesitation in front of a small or big crowd.
4. The Flight Commander is responsible for following class procedures at the beginning of each class and must be able to organize all activities directed by the Instructors.
5. Flight Commander is responsible for conducting fair and objective uniform inspections on designated days. He/She will be responsible to turn in all grading sheets to instructors for posting grades.
6. Flight Commanders will learn, practice, and teach drill. He/She will lead flight in drill practice days.
7. Ensures all support positions (Logistics Rep, PT Rep, Flight Sergeant) within the flight are manned.

Requirements

The Flight Commander Position is normally assigned to an Upper Classman Cadet (AS-2/AS-4), who displays leadership and communication skills necessary to manage all the tasks assigned to the position.

The minimum rank for this position is a Cadet 2nd Lieutenant

The minimum Aerospace Science (AS) level for this position is an AS-2

This position is highly recommended for cadets who possess the communication and managerial skills needed to take charge of a flight of cadets at all times. Additionally, such cadet must be able to represent the AFJROTC program as a primary ambassador to the mission.