

Warthog Squadron

Unmanned Aerial System Team Commander

Job Description

The Unmanned Aerial System (UAS, a.k.a Drones) Team Commander is responsible for coordination of all UAS events AFJROTC is involved. The UAS Commander will report directly to the Operations Sq. Commander.

Unmanned Aerial System Team Commander

Job Description

1. The UAS Team Commander must be able to keep proper discipline, maintaining their uniform and keeping proper grooming always to lead by example. They must also be able to delegate different tasks throughout their flight without causing any problems and confusion.
2. The UAS Commander is responsible for all UAS operations including training and assisting with recruiting events.
3. The UAS Commander is responsible for setting up schedules and the training of all the UAS members whenever it is necessary. Reports service credits to the recruiting members to Mission Support Squadron for proper accreditation of members that were part of the UAS presentation.
4. Oversees the proper training of new cadets to the team.
5. Responsible for the proper handling, accountability, and maintenance of UAS Systems in the inventory.
6. Responsible for accountability of UAS equipment on WINGS inventory system through quarterly inventories. Reports results to the SASI/ASIs.

Requirements

The Unmanned Aerial System Team (UAS) Commander Position is normally assigned to a Junior Cadet (AS-2/AS-4), who displays leadership and communication skills necessary to manage all the tasks assigned to the position.

The minimum rank for this position is a Cadet 2nd Lieutenant

The minimum Aerospace Science (AS) level for this position is an AS-2

This position is highly recommended for cadets who possess the communication skills needed to provide educational presentations to a variety of audiences. Additionally, such cadet must be able to represent the AFJROTC program as a primary ambassador to the mission.

Unmanned Aerial System Team Commander

7. Coordinates with APT Commander with planning of community service events promoting positive messages to appropriate audience for recruiting or awareness purposes.
8. Coordinate with appropriate units for support when events are scheduled.